

Low Impact Development (LID): Current Trends and Case Studies

A community workshop for local government, development community and environmental organizations hosted by the American Basin Council of Watersheds

October 6, 2010 – Blue Goose Fruit Shed, 3550 Taylor Road, Loomis, CA

AGENDA

REGISTRATION &amp; NETWORKING	Refreshments sponsored by: United Natural Foods, Inc.	7:30
Welcome and Workshop Overview	Walt Scherer, Councilmember, Town of Loomis Gregg Bates, American Basin Council of Watersheds Carmel Brown (facilitator)	8:30
Keynote Speakers: Darla Inglis, UC Davis Center for Land Use and Water - LID Introduction and Context Mike McKeever, SACOG - Regional Initiatives to Mitigate Impacts of Urbanization Judy Corbett, Local Government Commission - The Ahwahnee Water Principles: Making the Connection Between Water, Land Use and Climate Change		8:45
BREAK (time approximate)		9:45
Integrating LID and Urban Runoff Management: Drainage Master Planning, Flood Control, Hydromodification and Groundwater Recharge (Panel Discussion)	Chris Bowles, cbec Tom Plummer, Civil Solutions Panel: Eric Berntsen, State Water Board Darla Inglis, UCD Jennifer Walker, Watearth	10:00
LID Implementation Challenges: Getting the Design in the Ground (Panel Discussion)	Tom Dalziel, Contra Costa County Dan Cloak, Cloak Environmental Christian Carleton, CSUS Water Programs	11:00
LUNCH		12:00 – 1:00
LID and Green Infrastructure (Panel Discussion)	Darla Inglis Steve White, Sacramento County Ed Armstrong, Foothill Associates Katie Yancey, City of West Sacramento	1:00
LID Performance: Monitoring and Measuring Results (Panel Discussion)	Michael Hogan, Integrated Environmental Restoration Services, Inc. Loren Oki, UC Davis Christian Carleton, CSUS Office of Water Programs	2:00
Lessons from Today and Look to the Future Video "Slow the Flow" + Door/Table Prizes	Carmel Brown, CKB Environmental Consulting	3:00
ADJOURN		3:30

Thank you to our sponsors! City of Roseville, Town of Loomis, Dry Creek Conservancy, Hewlett-Packard Company, Cosumnes American Bear Yuba (CABY) Integrated Regional Water Management, cbec, inc. ecoengineering, Terracare Associates, United Natural Foods, Inc., RBF Consulting, Lu Restoration Nursery, Sacramento County, City of Rocklin
With special thanks to the Virgil Harrigan Family Trust.